

Movie & Entertainment News

Blockbuster crosses 500 crore worldwide

The recent release has crossed 500 crore in worldwide box office in two weeks. It is the fastest film this year to reach the mark. The lead actor thanked fans and the crew. The film is still running strongly in key markets. A sequel is under discussion.

Award-winning director announces new project

The award-winning director announced their next project, a period drama set in the 1940s. The cast will be announced next month. Shooting is expected to start by year-end. The director said the script has been in the works for two years.

Streaming platform drops trailer of much-awaited series

The streaming platform released the trailer of the much-awaited series. The show will have eight episodes and will drop in a single batch next month. The series is an adaptation of a popular novel. Fans have been reacting positively to the cast and the look of the show.